

The Way They Should Go

(Inspired by Proverbs 22:6)

Verse 1

Morning light spills through the curtains
slow,
You're up before the sun has time to glow,
Packing bags, tying shoes,
Smiling though you've barely snoozed,
Every hug you give, it's pure gold.

Pre-Chorus

You're the calm in their storm,
The heart keeping them warm,
Building dreams out of bedtime prayers.

Chorus

*Jaime, you show them the way they should
go,
With every story, every "I love you"
whispered low.
You teach them grace, you teach them light,
You hold their hearts through every night.
Clarry and Toby will always know -
They're loved the way they should go.*

Verse 2

Finger paints and muddy knees,
Laughter dancing through the trees,
Little moments that the world won't see,
But heaven smiles at these memories.
You're planting seeds in tender hearts,
That'll bloom wherever they are.

Pre-Chorus

When the world feels too wide,
You're their shelter, their guide,
A reflection of God's gentle care.

Bridge

One day they'll run into the world and fly,
But they'll carry your love deep inside.
Every choice, every road they find,
They'll hear your voice in their minds.

Final Chorus

*Jaime, you show them the way they should
go,
Your love's the map their hearts will always know.
Through the laughter, through the tears,
You've built a faith that calms their fears.
Clarry and Toby will always know—
They're loved the way they should go.*

Outro

Start them off on the way they should go,
And your love will guide them home.
