

Still You Carry Me

(Inspired by Isaiah 46:4)

Verse 1

When the night feels long and I can't see through,
When the storm clouds rise and the sky
turns blue,
I hear Your whisper through the waves,
"Be still, my child - I'm here, I save."
Though my strength may fade away,
Your love has never failed to stay...

Chorus

*Still You carry me, through the wind and sea,
When I fall, You hold my heart so gently.
You lift my eyes again,
You remind me who I am -
Even when I'm weak,
Still You carry me.*

Verse 2

When the voices say I'm not enough,
You speak peace, You speak of love.
Your yoke is easy, Your burden light,
You pull me close through every fight.
You calm the restless tide,
And draw me to Your side...

Bridge

You don't let go when I'm sinking,
You're the shore my soul's been seeking.
Grace upon grace, wave after wave,
Your mercy saves - Your mercy saves.

Final Chorus

*Still You carry me, through the wind and sea,
When I'm lost, You call me home completely.
You lift my eyes again,
You remind me who I am -
Even when I'm weak,
Still You carry me.*

Outro

Still You carry me...
You carry me home.
